HSPCF WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

20th November 2026

Welcome back! Here are this week's updates from Halton SEND Parent Carers Forum.

1 PARENT CARER FORUM UPDATES

Parent Carer Coffee Morning – 26th Nov 9.30-11.30

Our next Parent Carer Coffee Morning will take place on Thursday 26th November, 9.30–11.30am at the Bridgewater Park Hub.

We are also hoping to be joined by Shift, a service that supports adults with learning needs and disabilities to move towards employment, education or training. Their attendance is not yet confirmed, but if they are able to join us, families will have the opportunity to hear more about the support they offer and ask questions.

Whether or not we have a guest on the day, the coffee morning will still be a relaxed chance to come along for a cuppa, meet other parent carers, share experiences and have a chat in an informal and welcoming space.

Help support the Forum at no extra cost

A quick reminder that there are two simple ways to help raise funds for Halton SEND Parent Carers Forum, without it costing you anything extra.

Co-op Local Community Fund – Co-op Members can choose HSPCF as their local cause, and the more members who select us, the more funding the Forum could receive.

Easyfundraising – when shopping online through easyfundraising, participating retailers make a small donation to the Forum at no extra cost to you.

Every little bit raised helps us continue supporting SEND families across Halton.

HALTON BOROUGH COUNCIL UPDATES

2 HALTON BOROUGH COUNCIL UPDATES

National update – Young People and Work Review

The Government has published Alan Milburn's independent Young People and Work Review, looking at the growing number of young people who are not in education, employment or training.

There are clear links to SEND, particularly around Preparing for Adulthood, access to education and training, employment opportunities and support into adulthood. Families who would like to find out more can read the full report and Government response online From a Welfare State to a Working State GOV.UK please note: this is a national Government update.

Christmas Holiday Activity and Food programme

Halton's HAF programme will run again over Christmas offering eligible children and young people free activities and food during the break, including young people with SEND up to age 25. Providers have now been selected and some are already sharing activities.

Find activities and book:
https://eequ.org/haf/programmes

Department for Education (DfE) Update – Children Not in School consultation

The DfE has launched a national consultation on draft statutory guidance and proposed regulations relating to Children Not in School as part of the Children's Wellbeing and Schools Act 2026. The consultation includes proposals around: local authority registers for children who are not in school, information parents and education providers may be required to share, support for families who electively home educate and mandatory meetings before some children are removed from school for home education. Have your say: Children Not in School Statutory Guidance

Transition Team Carers Forum

Halton's Transition Team is starting a new monthly online Carers Forum for parents and family members of young people moving towards adulthood. Planning for transition can begin from age 14 and the sessions will give families the chance to learn more about the Transition Team and the support available in Halton. See Poster for more details or email transition.team@halton.gov.uk

NHS / ICB UPDATES

Welcome back! Here are this week's key updates from NHS and ICB partners.

3 NHS / ICB UPDATES

HeadzUp Halton – Mental health drop-in support

HeadzUp Halton is a free drop-in service for children and young people up to 18 along with their parents and carers, who would like advice or support around emotional wellbeing and mental health. Following the recent tragic deaths of two young people in Halton, the Mental Health Support Team has also shared a letter with information about grief, bereavement and where families can access further support. The full letter is included at the end of this week's newsletter.

Runcorn: Tuesdays, 2.30–4.30pm – Brookvale Children's Centre
Widnes: Thursdays, 2.30–4.30pm – Warrington Road Children's Centre.

Our thoughts are with the families, friends and everyone affected at this incredibly difficult time.

Knowing Me Profiling Tool – Parent Update

The Knowing Me profiling tool is continuing to roll out across Cheshire and Merseyside, with around 1,600 professionals now trained. A new Microsoft Forms version has also been introduced to make the profiling process easier for families and professionals to complete together. For parents and carers whose child or young person will be completing the tool, ADDvanced Solutions is also offering awareness sessions to help explain what the profiling tool is, how it works and what to expect. Dear Parents and Carers, Pupils and Colleagues,

We were deeply saddened to hear the news of the unexpected death of two young people within your community. At this incredibly difficult time, we would like to extend our heartfelt condolences to everyone affected by this loss.

The loss of a young person can have a profound impact on everyone who knew them and on the wider school community. We recognise that many people may be experiencing a range of emotions, including sadness, shock, confusion, anger, or disbelief. There is no right or wrong way to feel, and everyone will respond differently in their own time.

The loss of a young person is a deeply sad and heart breaking event that will affect individuals, families, friends, staff, and the wider community. Even if the young person was not known to you their death may still have a significant emotional impact. The loss of someone from our school community can challenge our sense of safety, bring up memories of other losses, or create feelings of sadness, shock, or concern for those who were close to them. It is important to remember that these reactions are valid. Everyone is affected by loss in different ways, and it is okay to seek support regardless of how well you knew the young person.

We recognise that this news may bring a range of emotions, including sadness, shock, confusion, anger, guilt, or disbelief. These reactions are entirely natural, and there is no right or wrong way to feel or grieve. During this difficult time, we encourage everyone to be kind to themselves and to one another, and to seek support if they need it. We will continue to support our school community as we come together to process and respond to this loss.

We wanted to make contact to offer our support and to share some information and resources that may be helpful for anyone affected by this loss. We hope these resources provide safety, comfort, guidance, and reassurance during what is a very challenging period.

Support from Halton MHST

We would also like to remind you that Halton Mental Health Support Team (MHST) is here to support your school during this difficult time. Please do not hesitate to contact your school's Senior Mental Health Lead, if you would like to consider a referral for your young person. .

Our aim is to work alongside you to support the wellbeing of your school community and help create a safe space for people to process and express their feelings.

Please remember that support is available, and no one needs to manage this difficult time alone.

With our sincere condolences and best wishes,

Halton MHST
